PREMIER SAYS OPPORTUNITIES FACE CANADA

Premier Brown was particularly optimistic regarding Canada's opportunities in the world.

He said that the recent strike had lost the coal markets, many of which would be recaptured, and that the world is in a position to take up the slack in the coal market.

Review of Sport

By KEITH MCINNIS

THE TIGHTWADS
 Doubtless there are circumstances under which double and treble figures might be expected to appear in the review of the week. But you are expected to pay for the review of the week. You are expected to pay for the review of the week. You are expected to pay for the review of the week.

The average citizen fails to grasp the value of the review of the week. He fails to grasp the value of the review of the week. He fails to grasp the value of the review of the week. He fails to grasp the value of the review of the week.

When the light has passed up the main body of the review of the week, the gate will probably gross $2,500.00. In the next column, a review of the week will be given. In the next column, a review of the week will be given.

Then the last feature of the review of the week will be given. Then the last feature of the review of the week will be given. Then the last feature of the review of the week will be given.

Forty-four thousand tickets in the review of the week. Forty-four thousand tickets in the review of the week. Forty-four thousand tickets in the review of the week.

Then comes the review of the week. Then comes the review of the week. Then comes the review of the week. Then comes the review of the week.

Cards Divide Doubleheader

BUT PIRATES ARE WINNERS OVER BOSTON

Chicago Cubs Idle Because Of Rain—Champs Use 20 Players

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—The World champion Cards divided their third straight doubleheader with the Cubs Thursday, and the two clubs continued in a tie for second place, each dropping half a game further behind the league-leading Pirates, who triumphed over the Braves. The Cards won the first game by knocking Boston out of the box in three innings, piling up a seven-run lead, and continued the assault by a final total of eleven to three. The Cubs took the closer battle to eight to five, ducking hitting the center in the eighth.

St. Louis used twenty players in the evening encounter, five being pitchers. Terry hit two homers, his eighth and nineteenth of the season, one coming with two on base.

Toronto Boy Gets Credit
Lefty Jim Fugle, who has been out of the lineup since his debut and allowed a run in the first and two thirds innings, Larry Hennrich, who has been out of the lineup since his debut, and put on the bench, allowing neither a run nor a hit for the remainder of the game. Fugle got credit for the victory.

In the second combat the Cards took advantage of New York errors, and Ed Fitzsimmons and Walter Ford, Ronshi and Alfie hit homers, the game in which, Fugle, a right-hander from Houston, Texas, won his third straight start for St. Louis. The Cards and Cubs are four and a half games behind Pittsburgh with one more game in the current series.

Pirates Win
Baltimore collected a behind-hill, but pitched by Carson Hill, the Pittsburgh Pirates, continued their march against the Boston Braves (two and one).

It was the Pirates' fifth straight triumph over the Braves, and their eighth victory in a row.

Home Run Twins

Want you to meet H. Wilson, left, of the Cubs, and Mr. C. Williams, of the Phillies, who are the home run twins of the National League. While the Phillies are not going around in automobiles and the Cubs are, Williams is keeping abreast with Wilson in home runs. Each slugs his 25 homers to his credit.

If a Robinson Suit could talk What a tale it would unfold

"I AM a Robinson suit. Skilled workers in many lands have contributed their brains and labor to my creation. In every city and hamlet in the Dominion you will find me. The busy office executive wears me every day. The toiler in the factory dons me at the end of his day's labor. The business man buys me because he's a business man and recognizes superlative value. And the man to whom economy is paramount sees in me a definite way to save money. I'm chesty and I'll admit it; because I know I've got the quality, the style, the tailoring that men want, and I know too that I'm from $10 to $15 less than my competitors. This season I'm better than ever!"
